Lesson Title:	the Holy Scriptures 3

Question 1. True or false: Scripture depends for its authority on bodies of men such as the early church councils which determined the Canon or the Westminster Divines, who wrote the Westminster confession. Explain your answer and find some Scriptures to support it. (WCF 1.4)

Question 2. What are three ways in which we can know that the Scriptures are the Word of God? (WCF 1.5)

Question 3. In your own words, describe the internal evidences Scripture gives that it is the Word of God. Pick the three that you find most powerful and try to find some Scriptures to demonstrate each of them. (WCF 1.5)

Question 4. Describe some ways in which, as believers, we may become aware of the inward witness of the Spirit that the Scriptures are the Word of God. Why is it appropriate that the Spirit should perform this work in our hearts?

Question 5. Should we expect a new prophet to arise at any time and tell us something new from God? Explain your answer and support it from Scripture (WCF1.6)

Question 6. Can anybody understand the Scriptures unaided and be saved? Explain your answer and give some Scriptures to support it (WCF 1.6)

Question 7. If God's revelation is complete, how are we to proceed in areas where the Bible does not speak specifically? Give some examples. (WCF 1.6)

Question 8.
